The student is eligible for dual enrollment. They can take college courses. The school district covers transportation, educational coaching, tuition, fees, and/or books.

The student is eligible for Federal Student Aid Grants which do not have to be repaid.

The student can get educational support from the government.

The student is eligible for the Adult Autism Waiver as a part of Medicaid that provides long-term services and supports for community living.

Do you know that there are scholarships available for students with special needs? If so, make sure to complete the application. Help the student with their essays.
Prepared by Christine Huang '20, Bryn Mawr College as a part of the course, Promoting Change Thru Service for students and families of Parkway West High School